CITY OF WARREN CELEBRATES MARTIN LUTHER KING DAY AT WARREN CITY HALL MONDAY, JANUARY 19

Warren, MI – Artifacts from the Charles A. Wright Museum of African American History will be on public display at the City of Warren’s second annual Martin Luther King Day celebration at Warren City Hall Monday, January 19 from noon until 1 p.m. The public, including non-residents of Warren, are invited at no charge.

Warren Mayor Jim Fouts said the celebration of Dr. King’s 86th birthday is held with the co-operation of Life Application Ministries Christian Church (LAM) in Warren. Fouts also said the celebration is being held because the evening dinner event formerly held in Warren by the Interfaith Center for Racial Justice has been moved to another location. “We wanted to keep this important event in Warren during the day for convenience purposes,” said Fouts.

“This promises to be a memorable event that honors Dr. King’s contributions to the civil rights struggle,” said Fouts.
