DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.'S DAUGHTER PRAISES WARREN MAYOR JIM FOUTS

Letter will be read at ceremony Monday at Warren City Hall at noon.

Warren, MI – At Warren’s second annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. ceremony Monday, January 19, a letter from Bernice A. King, daughter of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., will be read praising Warren Mayor Jim Fouts. (Letter attached)

The ceremony will be Monday, January 19 at noon at Warren city hall.

Bernice A. King is the chief executive officer of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Non-Violent Social Change, Inc.

In her letter, Ms. King praised Fouts for “unwavering courage to embrace noble institutions” and “undeterred in your commitment in celebrating my father’s legacy.”

Ms. King’s letter also stated: “Your leadership certainly sets an example that politicians and other persons of influence should seek to emulate in the discharge of their duties.”
