WARREN'S FLAGS FLYING HALF-STAFF IN HONOR OF SLAIN RUSSIAN OPPOSITION LEADER

Warren, MI – Warren Mayor Jim Fouts has ordered all city facilities to fly the American flag half-staff to honor Boris Nemtsov, the slain Russian opposition leader.

Fouts was a vocal critic of the Russian attempt to dominant the Ukraine.

“Mr. Nemtsov was the leader of the opposition to the despotic rule of Russian Premier Vladimir Putin, and he was the hope for democracy in Russia,” said Fouts, who is certain Putin is behind the assassination.

Nemtsov was assassinated last Friday and was opposed to the Russian take-over of the Ukraine. Fouts praised the 30,000+ turnout Sunday expressing outrage over the assassination.
