Volunteers From Warren Honored Thursday, April 23 at 8 p.m.

Warren, MI – Volunteers who reside in Warren will be honored at the city's 6th Annual Outstanding Volunteer Recognition Ceremony, Thursday, April 23 at the Warren City Hall Atrium at 8 p.m.

Volunteers from church, civic, charitable, and religious groups will be recognized. So far, over 100 have been nominated.

“These volunteers have earned this recognition for their time and effort they have contributed to our city,” said Warren Mayor Jim Fouts, who initiated the idea in 2010 during National Volunteer Month in April.

Forty volunteers from various organizations and churches will receive special recognition for their assistance in helping Warren flooding victims last August.

The public is invited. For further information, call the Mayor's Office at 586-574-4520.
