

Warren Mayor Jim Fouts
Delivers Emergency Radio
To Low Income Warren Senior
Monday, April 27

Warren, MI – Warren Mayor Jim Fouts will personally deliver an emergency radio to a low-income Warren senior Monday, April 27 at 10:30 a.m.

The senior, Judith Foltz, lives at 6797 Cadillac. Fifty Warren seniors will receive the radios donated by the Warren Police Department's CERT unit (Citizens Emergency Response Team).

The 24 hour – 7-day radios will keep the seniors informed of any emergencies in the tri-county area like a flood, tornado or an evacuation, so they can take immediate action.

The seniors chosen by Macomb County Meals on Wheels were selected because of their low income levels. "These radios could be lifesavers, especially if seniors are not tuned into TV or radio or if they are asleep," said Fouts.
