Warren Veteran's Home Outdoors Gets A Free Facelift Monday by Home Depot; Mayor To Attend

Warren, MI – John Ciecko, Jr., an active Warren veteran, will have his home's outdoor area completely redone compliments of The Home Depot.

Warren Mayor Jim Fouts will attend the start of the facelift beginning Monday, July 6 at 11:30 a.m. His address is 8475 Baird.

Ciecko served as the executive committeeman, judge advocate, paralegal and retired national service of the Military Order of Purple Heart, Chapter 1818.

Home Depot stores in Warren, Sterling Heights and Utica are participating on this project that is funded by a $4,600 Home Depot grant.

Fouts said Ciecko is deserving of the grant because of "the work he has done for veterans. "Ciecko was the driving force behind Warren becoming the first city in Michigan to be designated A Purple Heart City," said Fouts.
