Warren, MI – College-bound students and their families are invited to attend the city of Warren’s Sixth Annual College Fair Thursday, September 25 from 6-8 p.m. at the Warren City Hall.

The Fair features representatives from a record number of over seventy-five colleges and universities, many from out-of-state.

New York University, Penn State University, The Ohio State University, The University of Alabama, The University of Michigan, and Michigan State University, are just some of the universities that will be represented.

Warren Mayor Jim Fouts initiated the idea of a college fair to “offer students a ‘one-stop’ opportunity to learn about colleges and universities.”

Fouts said the fair is a “time-saver for students and their parents or guardians to learn about curricula, financial aid and costs related to attending college.”

Last year over 1200 attended the fair.
