MEDIA ADVISORY

City of Warren to hold Town Hall on Roads June 5

Warren, MI (May 30, 2024) – Warren City Council President Angela Rogensues, Warren Mayor Lori M. Stone, and City Engineer Tina Gapshes will host a town hall meeting to discuss roads in Warren.

WHAT: Roads Town Hall Meeting
WHEN: Wednesday, June 5, 2024 from 6:30-8 p.m
WHERE: Warren Community Center Auditorium, 5460 Arden Ave., Warren 48092
WHY: To provide information on road funding, jurisdiction, construction timelines, and more.

“I am excited to partner with the administration to better understand our roads and infrastructure and share this information with my neighbors,” said Warren City Council President Angela Rogensues.

“The condition of our roads is a major concern for residents,” said Warren Mayor Lori M. Stone. “We want to be transparent regarding the road selection process and funding sources. A lot of valuable information will be shared at this town hall.”

“As the City Engineer, I am pleased to explain the process for selecting roads for construction at our upcoming town hall,” said Warren City Engineer Tina Gapshes. “I will also outline the construction process and be available to answer any questions from residents.”
